REMARKS

25X1X

25X1A 1. On [REDACTED] a Soviet detail was quartered in the Hohenfinow estate buildings which were partially destroyed. Two soldiers wearing black-bordered blue epaulets were seen in front of a house in the southeastern corner of the farmyard. According to a local resident, this house, the windows of which were boarded up, was the commander's billet. No antennae or telephone lines were seen; however, on the roof of the farmhouse were two rods, 2 meters long and 5 meters apart, which could have been antennae or lightning rods. *

25X1X 2. [REDACTED] Tornow, Gorsdorf, Kothen, Falkenberg, Niederfinow, the village of Hohenfinow, and the Hohenfinow estate on [REDACTED] 25X1A for possible radio installations, but no such installations were found. At that time, a passenger car with a Soviet officer who wore red-bordered red epaulets and a French truck occupied by five civilians and one soldier, apparently wearing a French uniform, were seen parked in the village of Hohenfinow.

25X1A * [REDACTED] Comment. The small Soviet Air Force unit whose numerical designation and missions are not known was observed in Hohenfinow for the first time. For location of farmhouse, see Annex.
